THE YAZOO TRAGEDY.—The Vicksburg (Miss.

Tuesday in Yazoo county Henry Dixon was shot to death. Twist it as we may, this terrible deed which leaves a widow and fatherless children to life's stern struggle was brought about by intolerance in politics. We are not at this writing in possession of the particulars of the deed, but the circumstances that led to it are known, and they warrant us in asserting that the days of the democratic party in Mis-sissippi are numbered unless its leaders at once meet the responsibility that rests on them. The white voters of Mississippi must by their course make future affairs of this kind an impossibility.

The silent, powerful ballot is the court that must try this fearful evil of bulldozing and pass sentence on it, by sweeping its advocates from all the channels that lead to power."

TEE PENINSULA PEACH CROP.—So far this season about 3,000 carloads of peaches have been shipped over the Delaware railway to the

A STRANGE CATTLE DISEASE.—The Hartford Evening Post says that the owners of thoroughbreds and grades in Farmington, Conn., have discovered a mysterious disease prevailing among their herds, which, having proved fatal in two or three cases, is causing considerable alarm. The epidemic thus far has shown itself exclusively among the milk cows, appearing at first with a serious lameness in the hind legs.

Gradually the disorder increases, the animal meanwhile being reduced to a skeleton. The disease, whatever may be the cause or nature, baffles all treatment for its removal, and the animals have to be killed to get them out of their misery. The secretary of the State Board

THE CARLISLE SCHOOL FOR INDIANS .- On application from the Interior department, Secretary McCrary has directed that 1st Lieutenant Richard H Platt, 16th cavalry, report to Secretary Schurz for special duty in connection with Indian education. Lieutenant Platt, who has long been identified with the civilization of the Indian, will have charge of the school for young Indians, which will be opened at Carlisle barracks, Pennsylvania. This school will be similar to that branch of the Hampton (Va.) normal institute, which is devoted to the training of young Indians. The inmates of it will be brought from the various tribes of the west. The buildings to be occupied will be those of the old cavalry depot, which are suited for this new purpose. The success which has attended the work at Hampton prompts the establishment of this new school.

It will be remembered that this great commercial enterprise received the personal attention of Gen. Grant when President, and a number of surveying expeditions were sent out by his direction, and under the immediate supervision of Admiral Ammen. A telegram received here from Gen. Grant in Japan, through the Secretary of the Navy, replying to a letter referring to the question of his acceptance of the presidency of a company for the purposes indicated states "I approve." AFFAIRS IN PERU.-A dispatch dated July 30, 1879, received at the Departmene of State, from our minister to Peru, states that the decree issued on the 30th of June and for a time suspended, requiring duties to be paid in silver, coin, or its equivalent, has again been put in force. Previous to the issuance of this decree the duties were paid in legal tender paper notes, which, the minister states, were quoted at about 155 per cent. below silver. Examining a SECOND LIEUTENANT.-The board of officers which recently examined the newly appointed second lieutenants for the army say that the young men who appeared before it were exceptionally brilliant. To show, however, how one can be disconcerted, the following is told by Gen. McCook, the president of the board:—A young man who had passed a very creditable examination was brought into the presence of Gen. McCook, the president, who thought he would test him on what army officers call "general adaptation." Said Gen. McCook, "Do you know anything about our foreign treaties?" "Oh. yes," was the reply.
"Well," said the General, "in case this government wished to secure a criminal who had taken flight into some foreign country with which there were treaty relations existing, how would it proceed?" After some hesitation, the wouldbe lieutenant replied, "General, I have not thought of that; give me time to consider it.' "Certainly," said the General; and the young man retired to an adjoining room for reflection After he had conned over the proposition about two hours, he came rushing into Gen. McC.'s room. "Eureka!" said he; "I have it!" "Well." said the General, "how would the officers of this government proceed to get from a foreign country a fugitive from justice from our coun try?" "Why," said the young lieutenant-to he is now a lieutenant-"I would grant letter

The California Shooting.

The American District boy who accompanied De Young in the coupe at the time of the shooting, was run down by a reporter of the San Francisco Bulletin yesterday, and his statement is published as follows: "About 9 o'clock Saturday morning a gentleman drove up to the branch office at No. 961 Mission street in a coupe and called for a messenger boy. It was my turn to go out, and I went with him. I did not know the gentleman in the coupe, never having seen him before. We drove on to No. 2314 19th street. He told me to go to the house and inquire for Mr. Kalloch, and tell him that a lady in the coupe wanted to see him. The door was opened by a boy. I delivered the message, and the boy told me that Dr. Kalloch was not in. The gentleman told me to inquire what Mr. Kalloch's office hours were. I was told that he was at his office from ten to twelve. We drove from Mr. Kalloch's house along Mission street to 5th street. Before reaching 5th street Mr. De Young lowered the window of the coupe. We turned down Jessie street to the entrance of the Temple on that street, passing the buggy before stopping. When we stopped Mr. De Young peeped through the curtain of the rear window of the coupe and said, 'You see that man with the white ulster on; tell him that a ledy in the coupe wants to see him.' I went, The gentleman in the ulster was in the buggy. accompanied by another man, and was in the act of picking up the reins when I delivered Mr. De Young's message. He at once stepped down and approached the coupe cautiously, as if he anticipated something wrong, peering sideways at the window of the coupe. When he reached the coupe the shot was fired, which so frightened me that I ran as fast as I could back to the office." The boy had not read the accounts in the papers of an impending difficulty between De Young and Kallock. He did not suspect at any time during the ride that the person with him in the coupe intended to do anybody any harm. The gentleman was cool, and there was nothing about his persen to indicate that he contemplated the deed that was committed.

DE YOUNG HELD TO ANSWER. Charles De Young was brought before the Police Court yesterday, and, waiving examination, was held to answer to the charge of assault with intent to kill, without ball. At the police station vigilance was relaxed during the day, and only a few officers were on duty, with a few militiamen and workingmen's specials, the latter being sworn in for the purpose of making sure that De Young was not spirited KALLOCH'S CONDITION. The leaders of the workingmen's party held a conference with Mr. Kalloch's medical attendants yesterday to consider the expediency of putting up some other man for mayor. The physicians informed them that at present they saw nothing in the condition of Mr. Kalloch to render such course necessary, and intimated the probability of his early recovery.

The Sccretary left yesterday afternoon by private conveyance for Santee agency, and there will be joined by the balance of the party. They go to Rosebud Landing, and thence to Considerable prominence was given to the shooting of Mr. Kalloch in the San Francisco pulpits Sunday. W. E. Ijams, of the Green Street Congregational Church, treated it at length. His general conclusions were that Kalloch, whatever his faults might be, was a man of generous impulses, that the attack upon him was cruel and cowardly, and that the Chronicle has flourished in this city is evidence of a low stage of civilization. Rev. Horatio Stebbins, of the First Unitarian Church, formulated the idea that society was disgraced by a want of dignity of mind and strength of heart on the part of both the preacher and the publisher, who heaped abuse on each other until the truth of it gets beyond endurance, when one retaliates with the assassin's hand for what he could not bear in the same kind he had given Rev. M. C. Briggs, of the Howard Street Metho-dist Church, said De Young's deed showed an underlying current of immorality in society much to be deprecated. Kalloch and De Young were not the representatives of parties or of principles. Their quarrel was purely personal. From various points of the interior come expressions of private and public opinion con-demning the De Youngs for the course pursued by the Chronicle and the subsequent attack on Kalloch. Similar reports come from Oregon and Nevada. The Call compliments the workingmen for their moderate action and Kearney for his prudent course. The Alta further considers the tragedy and emphasizes its previous condemnation of De Young. The Chronicl claims its articles against Kalloch were published from a sense of duty. It holds out the idea that if the election should result in the workingmen's success there will be no peace but such as is agreeable to the mob, who mean nothing less than revolution.

A LONG TICKET.-When the republican nomination convention finishes its labors it will have acted upon ninety offices (two unexpired terms), which together with the nineteen state officers will make 109 names, and the line "Against Chinese Immigration" and the vignette will make the list a formidable one. But these names are not all to be voted on one ticket, as the senators and assemblymen are ap-portioned to the several senatorial districts. Eighty-six names are to be voted for, however, and under the law (section 1,191) when "more than eighty offices are to be filled" the ticket is to be 24 inches in length.—[San Francisco Alta,

HER FIRST HUSBAND'S RETURN .- John Yule teaches school at Bunker Hill, Oswego Town, N. Y. Ten years ago, while working in Madison county as a hop picker, he became acquainted with and married a young woman whose husband had been hurt three years previous on a western railroad, and was supposed to be dead. Mr. and Mrs. Yule have lived happily together. About three weeks ago a stranger called at Yule's house with a carriage, and Mrs. Yule went away with him and was gone two days. When she returned she told John that the stranger was her first husband, who, not having been killed, had determined to hunt her up and visiting her parents had learned what had happened and where she lived. He demands her, and John says that, inasmuch as she really belongs to him, he is willing to give her up. The worthy couple are considering what it is best to do, and they probably will separate.

JUDGE WOODWARD DYING .- A dispatch has been received at Reading, Pa, announcing that Judge Woodward, of the supreme court of that state, is in a dying condition at his country place, Hampden, Delaware county, N.Y. Judge Woodward is one of the leading lawyers and jurists of Pennsylvania, and was once the democratic candidate for governor. A CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY .- On hearing that she herself was dead, Mrs. Sarah Nagle, o Brooklyn, went to the coroner's office on Saturday in time to cut short the deliberations of the jury. George Wade, the man who had identi-fied a body found in a dock as that of Mrs. Nagle happened to be making an affidavit of the identity as Mrs. Nagle stepped into the room. Mr. Wade bolted for the nearest win-dow. Mrs. Nagle added to the strangeness of the affair by declaring before the jurymen that she had dreamed for the last three or four nights that she was dead, some unknown power holding her under water. She had, neverthe-less, been at home about her household duties as usual. The two coincidences could not be accounted for by the coroner.

Coming Athletic Events. For the next five weeks a series of athletic meetings will be held on each Saturday, gradually increasing in importance until the annual championship games take place at Mott Haven on September 27. On next Saturday games will be played by the Glenwood, Brooklyn, Fair-mount and Scottish-American athletic clubs on their respective grounds. On the succeeding Saturday the Manhattan Athletic club will hold its second annual fall meeting at its grounds. On Saturday, September 13, the Staten Island Athletic club will hold its fall meeting and on the following Saturday meeting, and on the following Saturday the New York Athletic club will hold its tenth annual fall games on its grounds at Mott Haven. Then will follow the grand meeting of the year for the amateur championships of America, this year held for the first time under the control of the National association. As all the tracks in and about New York are now in better condition than ever before, and as this is especially true of the track at Mott Haven, where the championship games are to be held, it is expected that better contests and records will be made than ever before. After the above games will come the contests between our amateurs and the English team which is coming over this fall. With one or two exceptions this team, whose names were given in a recent cable dispatch, includes the champion amateurs of England for 1879, and a good opportunity will be afforded of comparing the two national standards in the representation of each, who will meet on different tracks in this city and John Bell, a mail carrier between Foster City and Jamestown, is missing, and is supposed to have been murdered by Indians. His horses strayed into the station laste Sunday, and one of them had an Indian lariat tied to the halter. The wagon has not been found. These are the Indians whom President Hayes has given three townships of the choicest land on Jim river. Since the order conveying this land was issued they have become imbued with the notion that they are backed by the government, and will be protected in any excess. They belong to Crow Creek agency, 100 miles west of Sprink county.

THE MOSQUITO PLAGUE on the Eastern Shore of Maryland must be very bad. The superintendent and train hands of the railroad near Cambridge declare that the mosquitoes have been so thick as to obscure the light of the sun. and that lighted lamps have been necessary at mid-day in the stores and counting-rooms. A correspondent writes:-"Never in the history of Tyaskin have the mosquitoes been so thick as they have been during the past week. There is no rest night or day; our only remedy is smoke! smoke! And we have smoked so much that our old women and young women, too, look like dried beef on the hoof."

Hon. John C. TEN Eyck, ex-Senator of the United States, died Sunday night at his residence in Mount Holly, N. J., aged 65 years. He stud'ed law and was admitted to the bar in 1835. In 1839 he was appointed prosecutor of pleas for Burlington county, holding the position for ten years. He was a member of the New Jersey constitutional convention of 1844, and was elected a Senator in Congress for the term commencing in 1859 and ending in 1865, serving on the committees on commerce and the judiciary. He was also a delegate to the Philadelphia loyalists' convention of 1866.

THE REV. MR. BACON, of Norwich, Conn., informs all concerned that he is not whining for sympathy. He is a new comer in Norwich; he found there an old and established power—the Steamship company. This company was openly breaking the laws of the state by giving Sunday excursions. He had very little hope, he says, of putting a stop to these excursions, but he was determined to drag the unwilling law and the rich and influential law breakers face. to face. That he did by making complaint. The Public Prosecutor now refuses to do anything in the premises, on the ground that pub-lic policy does not demand it. The inference is that he regards the Sunday laws as so much dead letter. If this is the correct view, we agree with the Rev. Mr. Bacon that the laws should be repealed .- [N. Y. Sun, 25th.

GEORGIA COLORED PROPLE LIEELY TO START FOR KANSAS IN MULTITUDES.—A telegram from Atlanta, Ga., says:—"Information received here from all parts of the state make it certain that the negroes are organizing extensively for an emigration movement to Kansas. They are better fixed in Georgia than in any other state, owning over $6,000,000 worth of property, mostly in lands, which are assessed at merely nominal value. They have free schools in every county for colored children, supported by the taxes of white people, and a free university supported by a state appropriation of $8,000 per annum. In many counties they serve on juries and have generally all their rights. They give no reason for their proposed evodus. for their proposed exodus, and seem to be possessed with a strong spirit of unrest. Many of their leaders seem to have hopes of establishing a state in which the negroes shall have supreme and unquestioned sway. There can be no doubt that thousands of Georgia negroes will leave the state as soon as the cotton-picking season is over, and similar restlessness is reported among the negroes of Alabama and the Carolinas There are no signs of agents for the scheme, but the exodus is preached from home pulpits by our own negro preachers. There is no scarcity of negro labor in either of these states at present."

A NEEDLE'S ADVENTURE.—Some few days ago Dr. F. J. Gregory was called to see a little two-year-old boy, who was suffering with a pain in his hip. The little fellow would cry out with pain whenever he made any sudden twist or turn of the body, and his parents could not imagine the cause. On examination, the doctor discovered signs to led him to think that there was a needle or something in the flesh, and by pressing the place with his fingers the point of a needle made its appearance. Catching it with of forceps, he pulled, and brought to light a whole darning-needle, about two and a-half inches in length!—[Keysville (Va.) Herald.

CAN THE G. A. R. BURY A CATHOLIC BROTHERS A telegram from Philadelphia, August 25, says: This afternoon 115 members of the Schuyler Post, No. 51, G. A. R., met at their headquarters to consider a somewhat extraordinary matter. An aged comrade, of the Roman Catholic faith, died on Thursday last, having expressed a wish to be buried with Grand Army of the Republic honors. The post, numbering 475, was notified to report at the headquarters on Sunday noon to attend the funeral; but on Saturday night it was reported that Archbishop Wood would not allow the post to enter the cemetery. A committee called at his residence with a communication early Sunday morning, but both the archbishop and his secretary were absent. The vicar general of the diocese was waited upon. He said he could not consent to their entering either the church or the ceme-tely as a post. Such were the orders against secret societies. The archbishop only could revoke them. At the meeting to-day it was decided to lay the latter before the archbishop

ROSS-SMITH BOAT RACE. THE SITUATION IN SAN FRAN-

Kalloch's Condition Unchanged. SAN FRANCISCO, August 25 .- Up to this hourmidnight-Mr. Kalloch's condition is reported unchanged. Notwithstanding the uniformly favorable report of the physicians, those who still linger about the vicinity of the temple per-sist in the belief that he will die, and that the favorable reports are designed to keep them quiet. Kearney professes to share in that belief in common with the bulk of his followers.

Everything is quiet about the city. The pre-cautions about the Central station are still maintained, and two companies of the national guard remain on duty there to relieve the poice, who have returned to their regular duty. The offices of the Chronicle are still guarded. A Characteristic Letter from Kear-

New York, August 26,—Denis Kearney, the San Francisco sand lots orator, sends the following characteristic dispatch to the Sun:—Kalloch is resting easy at present and everything is very quiet. There is no danger of riot or trouble. The workingmen are gathering strength hour by hour Courts and state strength hour by hour. Our county and state ticket will be elected by large majorities. San Francisco will send White, the workingmen's candidate, into the state with 10,000 majority sure. I have now christened the Honorable Bilks' party "the murderer's party." Their only arguments are the pistol and the dagger. It is the democratic party under a new name, organized for the purpose of defeating the workingmen's party in the interest of the republican party, with Grant for President. Its supporters are the land-grabbers, the Chinese' six companies, the Chinese employers, the slave drivers, slave traders and slave holders, the onpressor of labor and destroyer of free institutions, the fresh water thieves and political bum-mers, lunch fiends and unbung murderers, and mers, lunch fiends and unbung murderers, and their organ is the Chronicle. Their candidate for governor has grabbed 135,000 acres of land and is the heaviest Chinese employer in the state, while the railroad highwaymen, the bank smashers and other thieving monopolies are supporting the republican party. In other words, the thieves are now fighting and honest men are bound to get their rights. I predicted that the Chronicle would jump the track. that the Chronicle would jump the track.

All Quiet To-day. SAN FRANCISCO, August 26, 9:30 a.m.—All is quiet this morning. The authorities still maintain a vigilant watch. Mr. Kalloch's condition continues favorable.

LONDON, August 26.—Special dispatches from Paris state that Prince Jerome Napoleon's alleged manifesto is probably compiled from his conversations with friends. It contains a statement that he is personally opposed to anything approaching a coup d'etat, and that he firmly believes in an eventual restoration of the empire by a reaction of public opinion caused by the violence of the radicals, but that he would not propose or hasten its restoration by any plot against the lawful government.

Canal. NEW YORK, Aug. 26.-The World to-day pub lishes a letter from Admiral Ammen, U. S. N., in which he says: Since the early part of 1866 Gen. Grant has taken an active interest in the proposed Inter-oceanic canal. He has been requested to aid and participate in the construc-tion of a ship canal via Nicaragua, and asked to say whether, if invited by the board of di-rectors of a responsible inter-oceanic ship company having a proper concession, he would serve as president of the company.
